

2012: Transformation or Apocalypse?

*A film series presented by Transition Town Chelsea
Fridays, 7 pm at The Welfare Building, Chelsea

Feb. 3: Apocalypse 2012 : The World after Time Ends

A documentary that revives humanity's ancient spiritual past with Native American spiritualists, secular prophets, environmentalists, healers and leaders in the global sustainability movement. Director Bruce Weaver clearly illustrates that only a spiritual and mythic revival can correct humanity's course. 120"

Feb. 10: Awakening the Dreamer/Between Two Worlds

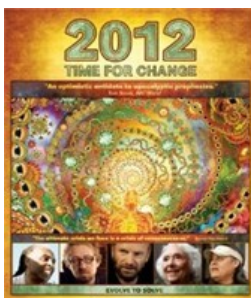

Awakening the Dreamer, Changing the Dream is derived from an inspirational educational program developed by the Pachamama Alliance in response to the degradation of our planet. The vision of the alliance is to bring forth an environmentally sustainable, spiritually fulfilling and socially just human presence on this planet. 30"

Between two Worlds is a film that examines the choice we make between conventional growth and sustainability and the related challenge of securing environmental health, economic vitality and social equity for both present and future generations. 23"

Feb. 24: I Am

Successful Hollywood director Tom Shadyac experienced a life threatening head injury. The film follows his journey to try to answer 2 basic questions: "Whats wrong with our world?" and "What can we do to fix it?" To find answers, he visits some of the worlds great minds. 78"

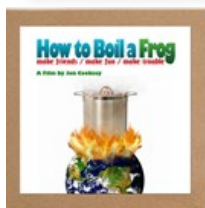

March 2: 2012: A Time for Change

Presents an optimistic alternative to apocalyptic doom and gloom. Journalist Daniel Picnbeck, author of the bestselling 2012: Return of Quetzalcoatl, on a quest for a new paradigm that integrates the archaic wisdom of tribal cultures with the scientific method. As conscious agents we can redesign the post industrial society on ecological principles to make a world that works for all. 85"

March 16: The Awakening

An independently produced documentary from Max Igan, covering controversial topics and important issues facing humanity. 65"

March 30: How to Boil a Frog

A movie about saving civilization with comedy. Topics range from Climate change to resource depletion. 88"

Off Main St., just East of Clocktower, just North of tracks and across from Chelsea Depot.*